

Basic Rules and Safety in the Club

- The Duty Instructor is in Charge of the Club Rooms during Classes and Assistant Instructors work under the Instructors responsibility.
- Ear protection is recommended at minimum, plugs are provided in the start pack or you can provide your own personal ear muffs. They should be worn whilst in Cabbing and Saw Room.
- Eye protection is recommended whilst using the trim saw or open saws. Glasses hang on the wall.
- Covered Shoes must be worn whilst in the Cabbing Room area.
- Waterproof Apron is recommended for Cabbing.
- Long hair and loose clothing should be tied back or contained
- The Duty Instructor has the right to decide if a stone is suitable or not to be used on Club Equipment.
- Boulder Opal or "Dirty Stones" must be cut on the "Dirty Saw" outside.
- Extended use of Club saws and grinders will be under the Instructors decision and should not be more than 20 minutes on a machine.
- Maximum of 3 Stones to be worked on at one time, keep the rest in your Rock Box
- Club tools and equipment should not be removed from the Club under any circumstances without the permission of the Club President.
- Only authorized personnel are permitted to use the 18" and 12" saws. If you need a stone cut see the Instructor.
- Please consider your personal hygiene as odors can offend fellow members.
- Be considerate and tolerant with fellow members. Some have hearing problems and may not have heard correctly.
- Clean up time starts 10 minutes before class completion. Please don't leave early without doing any cleaning. Check with instructor. This includes toilets, kitchen areas.

The Club operates on a Voluntary Basis so please thank and help Instructors where possible.

Failure to observe the club rules may lead to discipline action involving interview with the committee, suspension and possible expulsion from the Club.

I have read the above rules and safety material and explanations have been provided, and I agree to follow and comply with them and other Rules that apply whilst in the Club.
